Re: Green Mountain Holdings (Cayman) Ltd. v. Precision Pro Contracting Services, LLC, and Melvin Turner, et. al. (Case No.: 21-cv-03287(WFK)(VMS))

Dear Magistrate Judge Scanlon:

This firm is counsel for plaintiff, Green Mountain Holdings (Cayman) Ltd. (“Plaintiff”), in the above referenced matter. We write jointly with counsel for defendants, Precision Pro Contracting Services, LLC and Melvin Turner (“Defendants”) and third-party defendants Truist Bank (“Truist”) to provide an update in this matter pursuant to the Court’s Order dated September 15, 2022 (the “Order”).

At the conference held on September 15, 2022, as memorialized by the Order, Your Honor directed that discovery would close on November 18, 2022, and for the parties to file a joint letter certifying its completion on or before such date.

As between Plaintiff and Defendants, no further discovery remains outstanding between those parties and there is no outstanding non-party discovery relating to the direct action. With respect to the third-party action, on October 4, 2022, Defendants filed a motion to compel as against Truist. [Doc 51]. Thereafter, pursuant to the Court’s October 12, 2022 Order, Truist filed opposition [Doc 53]. As such, the motion to compel was fully submitted and pending an Order from Your Honor.

Thank you.

Respectfully,

Stephen Forte
